

Sunday, January 29th, 11:00 A.M. Join us for our weekly worship hour followed by talks and refreshments. The message this Sunday comes amid the politically roughest week I have witnessed in my life, with the new government making many changes that causes concern. Where is God in all of this? Is God really in the storms of life?

A Big Thank you to all who have been providing food and serving at our Warming Center...THANK YOU AND GOD BLESS YOU for your kindness and generosity!

Kaffeeklatsch to resume this Tuesday with a new time: 6:00 PM: We may open this new semester in grand style as a USCB German class will likely join our first session. This week: Besides coffee & cake and German conversations, we will also view a 10 min segment of Der Tatort Reiniger—a popular (and funny) German TV series (see flyer below)

From one of our students presently involved in teaching a course abroad (Honduras):

So nice to hear from you, and wow, I feel so blessed to have the church praying for me! I had some trouble receiving the materials for my course so we pushed it back a month. I will be heading to Roatan on the 30th to spend a month on the course and a month working... CAISHA
